MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.
Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendments to—

House Bill No. 625:

A Bill to be entitled An Act granting the City of Tampa, a municipal corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, certain submerged lands or middle ground in the Hillsboro River and in the Hillsboro Bay and Sparkman Bay for the purpose of navigation, commerce and municipal docks and terminals for a period of one thousand years and granting to said City of Tampa the right for the purposes mentioned to widen, extend or deepen the channel or water of the Hillsboro River and Hillsboro Bay within and contiguous to its present corporate limits and to fill in, build up, have, possess, use and own for such purposes, shoals, shallows and middle ground or flats therein.

Which amendments were as follows:

In Section 1, add at end of Section 1 the following: "Provided that the rights and privileges of navigation now vested in owners of lands abutting on said submerged lands heretofore granted or acquired, shall not be impaired."

At end of Section 1, after Stringer amendment, add as follows: "And provided, also, that the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to apply to any lands not submerged nor to deprive any person of existing title, claim or right."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.
Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to—

House Bill No. 730:

A Bill to be entitled An Act providing for the betterment of the rural schools by creating rural school inspectors and prescribing their duties and making appropriations for their compensation and expenses.

Which amendment was as follows:

In Section 1, strike out "Seven hundred and fifty," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "twelve hundred and fifty."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendments to—

House Bill No. 7:

A Bill to be entitled An Act to fix the liability of persons, firms or corporations engaged in certain hazardous occupations in this State for injuries to and death of liability growing out of this Act from garnishment, exempting money due or likely to become due on account of liability growing out of this Act from garnishing, execution and other processes, and to declare illegal and void contracts, contrivances and devices exempting such persons, firms and corporations from the liability prescribed by this Act.

With the following amendments:

Which amendments was as follows:

Strike out all of Section 1 of original Bill and in lieu thereof insert the following:

Section 1. That this Act shall apply to persons, firms and corporations engaged in the following hazardous occupations in this State; namely, railroading, operating street railways, generating and selling electricity, telegraph and telephone business, express business, blasting and dynamiting, operating automobiles for public use, boating when boat is propelled by steam, gas or electricity.

Strike out all of Section 3 of the original Bill and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 3. That the persons, firms and corporations mentioned in Section 1 of this Act shall not be liable in damages for injuries to their agents and employes, or for the death of such agents and employes, where same is done by their consent, or is caused by their own negligence. If the employes or agents injured or killed and the persons, firms and corporations mentioned in Section 1 of this Act, or their agents and employes are both at fault, there may be recovery, but the damages shall be diminished or increased by the jury in proportion to the amount of default attributable to both, provided that damages shall not be recovered for injuries to an employe injured in part through his own negligence and in part through the negligence of another employe, when both of such employes are fellow servants, where the former and the latter are jointly engaged in performing the act causing the injury and the employer is guilty of no negligence contributing to such injury.

Strike out Section 4 of the original Bill and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 4. That the doctrine of assumption of risk shall not obtain in any case arising under the provisions of this Act, where the injury or death was attributable to the negligence of the employer, his agents or servants.

All adopted June 3, 1913.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendments to House Bill No. 371:

A Bill to be entitled An Act to prohibit the dumping or placing of garbage, refuse or other objectionable matter in certain places in Escambia County.

Which amendment was as follows:

Mr. Stokes offered the following amendment to House Bill No. 371: Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert the following: Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, including municipal corporations, or the officer, agent or employe, or any such person, firm or corporation, to deposit or cause to be deposited within one-half mile of the occupied dwelling of any person in Escambia County, Florida, the accumulated garbage or refuse matter of ten or more families.

Section 2. Any person convicted of a violation of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided by general law of this State.

Section 3. That any person residing in Escambia County, Florida, shall have the right to institute suit in his or her own name to enjoin the actual or threatened violation of this Act, and such person shall not be required to show any general or special damage, actual or threatened, to secure the issuance of a restraining order or perpetual injunction under the provisions of this Act; and such person shall not be required to give bond; and on final hearing, if a restraining order granted hereunder is made perpetual, or a permanent injunction is granted under the provisions of this Act, the Judge or Court making such final decree shall include in such decree that the complainant or complainants do have and recover of the defendant or defendants a reasonable attorney's fee not to be less than one hundred dollars, to be enforced in the manner now provided by law and the rules of court for enforcing decree of Circuit Courts of this State.

Section 4. This Act shall take effect on January 1, A. D. 1914.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,

Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to—

House Bill No. 851:

A Bill to be entitled An Act providing for the appointment of an Inspector of Marks and Brands for the County of Escambia, State of Florida, prescribing his duties, providing for his compensation, regulating the inspection, killing, driving and shipping of cattle, goats, sheep and swine, in, through and from said County, and making a violation of any of the provisions of this Act a misdemeanor.

Which amendment was as follows:

Strike out Section 7 and insert:

Section 7. This Act shall take effect whenever a majority of the Board of County Commissioners of Escambia County, Florida, by Resolution duly adopted at a regular meeting of said Board shall declare that same shall become effective.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to—

House Bill No. 735:

A Bill to be entitled An Act declaring the Town of Cocoa, Florida, a city, with all the rights and privileges of a city under the Statutes; in addition to the rights and privileges heretofore conferred upon such town.

Which amendment was as follows:

Insert at the end of Section 2, as a part thereof, the following:

"The said city may issue bonds for the purpose of building or repairing public buildings, or waterworks; widening, extending or paving streets, or acquiring, widening or extending parks; purchasing or establishing gas or electric light plants of the city; constructing or maintaining sewers; equipping or maintaining a fire company; constructing a city dock; filling in any low or submerged land of said city; or for any other municipal purpose, to an amount not exceeding twenty per cent of the assessed value of the real and personal property within the corporate limits; provided, that this limitation shall not operate to prevent the issue by the city of additional bonds, which, with the existing bonded indebtedness, shall not exceed twenty per cent of the assessed value of the real and personal property within the corporate limits; provided further, that no bonds shall be issued by the city until the question of issuing the same shall have been decided in favor of such bond issue by an election held for that purpose in the manner now or hereafter provided by law."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 6, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has indefinitely postponed—

Senate Bill No. 566:

A Bill to be entitled An Act to prevent hotels and restaurants in the State of Florida from serving mullet and catfish to their guests as trout, bass or other fish, and to provide a penalty therefor.

Also—

Senate Bill No. 114:

A Bill to be entitled An Act to amend Section 789 of the General Statutes of the State of Florida, relating to elections to determine whether or not any county in the State shall issue county bonds for the purpose of constructing paved, macadamized or other hard surfaced highways.

And has failed to pass—

Senate Bill No. 46:

A Bill to be entitled An Act prescribing the number, names and requirements of certificates of teachers and for the issuance of the certificates; to secure fairness in the conduct of the examinations and uniformity in the value of certificates; to create a State Board of Examiners for holding all examinations of teachers; to prescribe the duties of such Board of Examiners; to make appropriations for the salaries and expenses of the Board of Examiners; to give the force of the law to the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education for the fair and faithful execution of the provisions of this Act.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 6, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate,
Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11:

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, That the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby allowed the Secretary of State for the purpose of employing a proof-reader to assist in getting out the Session Laws, 1913, same to be paid out of appropriation for expenses of Legislature, 1913, to be paid by the Comptroller upon the certificate of the Secretary that such work is complete.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

And Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11, contained in the above message, was read the first time by its title and referred to the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate,

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to House Bill No. 667:

A Bill to be entitled An Act providing for the creation of Broward County, in the State of Florida, and for the organization and government thereof.

Which amendment was as follows:

Strike out Section 1 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That the County of Broward be, and the same is hereby, created and established to exist as a County of the State of Florida. Such County shall comprise and include all that territory of the County of Dade which lies within the following boundary lines:

Beginning at a point on the eastern boundary of the State of Florida, where the south line of Section eighteen (18), township forty-nine (49) south, of range forty-three (43) east, if produced would intersect the same, and from the said point of intersection on the said eastern boundary of the said State run west on the southern boundary of Section eighteen (18), township forty-nine (40) south, of range forty-three (43) east, thence continuing west on the southern boundaries of Sections thirteen (13), fourteen (14), fifteen (15), sixteen (16), seventeen (17) and eighteen (18), of township forty-nine (49) south of range forty-two (42) east, and thence following the said line produced west to the western boundary line of the County of Dade, as heretofore existing, thence south along the said western boundary line of the County of Dade, as heretofore existing, to the line dividing townships fifty-one (51) and fifty-two (52), thence east on the township line dividing townships fifty-one (51) and fifty-two (52), to the range line dividing ranges forty (40) and forty-one (41), thence north along said range line to the northwest corner of Section thirty-one (31), township fifty-one (51) south, range forty-one (41) east, thence east following the Section lines as near as may be to the northeast corner of Section thirty-two (32), township fifty-one (51) south, range forty-two (42) east; thence south on said Section line to the township line dividing townships fifty-one (51) and fifty-two (52); thence east on said township line to the eastern boundary.

Strike out Section 22 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 22. In pursuance of the purposes of this Act, an election shall be held in the territory hereinbefore described as the County of Broward, on the 8th day of July, A. D. 1913, and for the purpose of said election, said territory shall be considered as divided into two divisions. The first of said divisions shall comprise all of said territory which is embraced within the territorial limits of the existing election precincts wherein Dania and Hallandale are situated, and the second division shall embrace all remaining territory of said proposed County of Broward; and this Act shall take effect upon its ratification by the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast at said election in said first division, and likewise by the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast in said second division.

The County Commissioners and the Supervisor of Registration of Dade County shall discharge such duties in connection with the calling and holding of said election as are now required of them by law for general elections, and the said election shall be governed in all respects by the law for holding general elections, except as otherwise provided herein, or not inconsistent herewith. No notice of said election shall be necessary. Those who are duly qualified to vote within the territorial limits of said proposed County of Broward shall be qualified electors of said election.

And in Section 4, lines 2 and 3, strike out the words on or before the first day of August, 1913."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendments—

House Bill No. 38:

A Bill to be entitled An Act requiring County Commissioners and members of the County Boards of Public Instruction to give bond.

Which amendment was as follows:

At the end of Section 1 add:

"The premium of the bonds given with surety companies as sureties shall be paid out of the county treasury or the county school fund, as the case may be."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendments to—

House Bill No. 899:

A Bill to be entitled An Act to create a State Normal School at Madison, in Madison County, Florida, to place the same under the management of the State Board of Education, and to make an appropriation for the maintenance of same.

Which amendment was as follows:

Amend by striking out Sections 4 and 5 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 4. There is hereby appropriated out of any sum or sums in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars for the purpose of erecting such building or buildings in the Town of Madison, Madison County, Florida, that may be necessary to conduct said school or for the accommodation of boarding teachers and students, and also the sum of ten thousand dollars per annum or so much thereof as may be necessary for two years beginning with October 1, A. D. 1913, for the purpose of maintaining said school and the payment of teachers.

Section 5. The appropriation which this Bill carries shall be available when the Town of Madison, Florida, or the citizens thereof shall donate or bind themselves to donate to the State of Florida, for the purpose of establishing thereon the said State Normal School, land sufficient and necessary for the erection of all buildings that may be needed for said State Normal School and acceptable to the State Board of Education, and also such property as the Town of Madison now owns and being used for school purposes, all of which shall not be less in value than the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Also strike out words "for the maintenance of same" in title, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "therefor."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to—

House Bill No. 421:

A Bill to be entitled An Act for the protection of farmers of Lafayette County.

Which amendment was as follows:

In Section 2, line 2, strike out the following words: "Apply to bodies of land of" and insert in lieu thereof the followinig: "Extend to."

Also after the word "acres" in line 3, of Section 2, insert the following: "Of land."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 4, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to—

House Bill No. 844:

A Bill to be entitled An Act empowering the County Commissioners of Pinellas County to pave County roads in said County with vitrified brick, concrete, concrete blocks, monolithic blocks, creosoted wood blocks, or other equally durable material, and assess two-thirds of the cost of said paving against the abutting property, and issue paving certificates against said property for a period of six years, with interest not exceeding seven (7) per cent per annum.

With the following amendments:

First:

Add to Section 1, at its conclusion, the following: "It shall be requisite that for each mile of the proposed paved portion of a County road, that said petition shall be signed by at least two-thirds of the property owners representing at least a majority of the property frontage abutting said road for each and every mile of the proposed portion thereof to be paved."

Second:

Strike out Section 7, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "This Act shall not become effective until an election shall be called by the Board of County Commissioners of said County for the purpose of ratifying or rejecting the same, nor unless such election be held without a period of six months after the passage of this Act; and said election shall not be held sooner than sixty days after the passage and approval of this Act by the Governor, and it shall be the duty of the Board of County Commissioners of said County to cause a notice of the holding of such election to be published in at least three newspapers published in Pinellas County, one each week for four successive weeks prior to the holding of said election. If a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be for the ratification of this Act, it shall go into effect upon the result of such election being declared, but if the majority of the votes cast at said election be against said Act, the said Act shall be declared to be rejected, and shall never become operative. Such election shall be held and conducted in compliance as nearly as applicable with the Statutes regulating the conduct of general elections, and only duly qualified electors of said County shall be entitled to participate in said election. Provided further, That said Board of County Commissioners shall in no event have the authority under the provisions of this Act to order any paving, under the conditions therein prescribed, in any County Commissioner's district in said County wherein a majority of the votes cast at the election hereinbefore referred to shall be cast against the ratification of said Act.

Third: Add to said Bill, Section 8 as follows: Section 8. Nothing contained in this Act, whether the same shall be ratified or rejected, shall be deemed to impair, disturb, qualify or interfere with the power, authority or discretion now invested by law in the Board of County Commissioners of said County to establish or pave public roads or highways in said County under the now existing provisions of law, and when paving shall be done by said Board under the now existing provisions of law, nothing herein shall be deemed to require or authorize the said Board to assess any portion of the costs of such paving against the abutting property; and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall be deemed to authorize or warrant the said Board of Commissioners to use or expend in a manner now unauthorized by law, the proceeds or any part thereof derived from the sale of any issue of bonds voted for in said County prior to the passage of this Act for the construction or paving of public highways in said County.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Hudson moved to reconsider the vote of the Senate in concurring to House Amendment to House Bill No. 364. Which was agreed to.

Mr. Hudson moved that the Senate do recede to said amendment.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Malone moved that the rules be waived and that the Senate take up House Bill No. 121.

Mr. Wells moved as a substitute that the Senate now consider House Messages.

Which was not agreed to.

Mr. Stringer moved that the rules be waived and that the Senate do now take up veto messages from the Governor.

Which was not agreed to.

The question then recurred upon the motion of Mr. Malone to take up House Bill No. 121.

And the following veto message was read:

State of Florida,
Executive Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

In pursuance of the provisions of Article 28, Section 3 of the State Constitution, I have the honor to return herewith, without my approval, the following measure which originated in the Senate:

An Act to amend Chapter 6363 of the Acts of the Legislature of the State of Florida for 1911; same being An Act to abolish the present municipal government in the City of Lakeland, in the County of Polk, State of Florida; and to organize a city government for the same; to prescribe its jurisdiction and powers; and to authorize the imposition of penalties for the violation of its ordinances.

My objection to this measure is that on May 23, 1913, I approved and signed House Bill No. 694, having the same title and the same text. The enactment of two identical laws is obviously unnecessary.

Very respectfully,

PARK TRAMMELL,
Governor.

Upon the question being put, shall the Bill pass, the Governor's veto to the contrary notwithstanding, the roll was called, and the vote was as follows:

Yeas—None.

Nays—Mr. President, Senators Blitch, Brown, Calkins, Carney, Cone, Cooper, Culpepper, Donegan, Finlayson, Himes, Hudson, Johnson, L'Engle, Lindsey, McCreary, McGeachy, Roddenbery, Stringer, Wall, Watson, Wells—22.

So the veto of the Governor was sustained.

Also the following:

State of Florida,
Executive Chamber,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 5, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

Under the provisions of Section 28 of Article III of the State Constitution I have the honor to return herewith, without my approval, the following Act, which originated in the Senate:

An Act to authorize the City of Lakeland to levy a special tax for publicity purposes.

My objection to this measure is that on May 28, 1913, I approved and signed House Bill No. 616, having the same title and the same text. The enactment of two identical laws is obviously unnecessary.

Very respectfully,

PARK TRAMMELL,
Governor.

Upon the question being put, shall the Bill pass, the Governor's veto to the contrary notwithstanding, the roll was called, and the vote was as follows:

Yeas—None.

Nays—Mr. President, Senators Blitch, Carney, Cone, Conrad, Cooper, Culpepper, Davis, Donegan, Finlayson, Johnson, L'Engle, Lindsey, Malone, McCreary, McGeachy, Roddenbery, Stringer, Wall, Watson, Wells, Zim—21.

So the veto of the Governor was sustained.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from the Governor was read:

State of Florida,
Executive Chamber,
Tallahassee, June 5, 1913.

Hon. Herbert J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

156—S.

I have the honor to advise that I have approved and signed the following Acts, which originated in the Senate, and have caused same to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State:

An Act relating to the compensation of County Commissioners in Counties having a population of Fifty Thousand and in excess thereof.

Also—

An Act to abolish the present municipal government of DeLand, Volusia County, Florida, and to organize a new City government for the same and to provide for its jurisdiction and powers.

Also—

An Act relating to the government of the City of Jacksonville, providing for the recall of elective officers by the qualified electors of said City, providing for the enactment of ordinances by the qualified electors of said City by the initiative, providing for the calling of a special election in which this Act shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said City for their ratification or rejection and for its approval by a majority of the qualified electors voting in said election before taking effect.

Also—

An Act to establish a municipality of the Town of Sebring in DeSoto County, Florida, to provide for its government, fix its territorial limits and to prescribe its jurisdiction and power.

Also—

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of enabling the Railroad Commissioners to audit, investigate and examine into the books and accounts of express and railroad companies subject to their jurisdiction.

Also—

An Act for the relief of George A. Clayton as contractor for the Supreme Court Building.

Very respectfully,

PARK TRAMMELL,
Governor.

State of Florida,
Executive Chamber,
Tallahassee, June 6, 1913.

Hon. Herbert J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I have the honor to advise that I have approved and signed the following Act, which originated in the Senate, and have caused same to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State:

An Act to fix the pay of members, officers and attaches of the Legislature of A. D. 1913, and certain expenses of the Legislature.

Very respectfully,

PARK TRAMMELL,
Governor.

The President of the Senate formally presented to Senator Davis, of the Tenth District, the pen with which he had signed the Bill providing for the State Normal School at Madison as a token of his popularity in the body as attested by the passage of the Bill in the Senate.

By unanimous consent Mr. Johnson offered the following Resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11:

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, That the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby allowed the Secretary of State for the purpose of employing a proofreader to assist in getting out the Session Laws, 1913. Same to be paid out of appropriation for expense of Legislature, 1913, to be paid by the Comptroller upon the certificate of the Secretary that such work is completed.

Mr. Johnson moved to adopt the Resolution.

Which was agreed to.

Mr. Blich moved that the Senate do now go into executive session.

Which was agreed to.

The doors closed at 10:35 a. m.

The doors opened at 10:40 a. m.

The roll was called and the following members answered to their names:

Mr. President, Senators Blitch, Brown, Carney, Cooper, Culpepper, Davis, Finlayson, Himes, Hudson, Igou, Johnson, L'Engle, Lindsey, McCreary, McGeachy, McClellan, McLeod, Roddenbery, Stringer, Watson, Wells, Wilson, Zim—24.

A quorum present.

Mr. Roddenbery, Chairman of Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report:

Senate Chamber.

The following message from the House of Representatives was read:

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 6, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendments to—

House Bill No. 547:

A Bill to be entitled An Act creating a department of Game and Fish of the State of Florida, and creating the office of the State Game and Fish Commissioner.

Which amendments are as follows:

In Section 1, line 7, strike out "elected," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "appointed."

In Section 32 strike out entire line 14 and line 15 up to and including the word "Commissioner," and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Comptroller shall not issue any voucher."

In Section 1 strike out the last sentence of the section, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "His successor shall be appointed during the last ten days of April, 1915, and every two years thereafter, and shall assume the duties of the office on the first day of June next following."

Strike out all Section 21, after the figures 21, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

Each County Warden shall receive an amount equal to one-fourth of all fines and penalties collected in the county in which he holds office, imposed for violation of any game and fish laws of this State where he does not furnish the evidence necessary to convict; and in all cases in which the County Warden furnished the evidence to convict, he shall receive an amount equal to three-fourths of all fines and penalties collected in the county in which he holds office, imposed for violation of any game and fish laws of this State. Said sums of money shall be paid out of the fine and forfeiture funds of such county by warrant to be issued by the Board of County Commissioners of such county.

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,
Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Also the following:

House of Representatives,
Tallahassee, Fla., June 6, 1913.

Hon. H. J. Drane,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment to—

House Bill No. 548:

Strike out Section 22, after the figures 22 and insert after the figures 22 the following:

"All moneys collected from fines, penalties or forfeitures under this law shall go into the fine and forfeiture fund of the County where such convictions are had, and the County Commissioners of such County shall pay to the witnesses furnishing the evidence in such convictions an amount equal to one-half of such fine or penalty which shall be paid by warrant upon the fine and forfeiture fund of such County.

"Add section after Section 26, which shall be Section 26½, and which shall read as follows:

"Section 26½. Any person convicted by the courts under the provisions of this Act, who fails to pay the fines imposed herein, shall be imprisoned as for a misdemeanor."

Very respectfully,

J. G. KELLUM,

Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The Committee from the House of Representatives appeared at the bar of the Senate, and announced that the House would adjourn sine die at noon this day.

Mr. Wells moved that a committee of three be appointed by the President to notify the House that the Senate will adjourn sine die at noon this day.

Which was agreed to.

And the President appointed Senators Wells, Wilson and Cone as said committee.

After a short interval, the said committee appeared at the bar of the Senate and reported that they had fulfilled their duty and asked to be discharged.

Which was granted, and the committee was discharged.

Mr. Cone moved that a committee of three be appointed to notify the Governor that the Senate would stand adjourned sine die at noon this day.

Which was agreed to.

And the President appointed Senators Cone, Himes and Watson as such committee.

After a brief interval the committee appeared at the bar of the Senate and reported that they had fulfilled their duty and asked to be discharged.

Which was granted, and the committee was discharged.
